

Advocate Rachel Eeles joins AFR Advocates

Advocate Rachel Eeles has joined AFR Advocates as a family and criminal lawyer. Rachel will work alongside Partner, Sara Mallett.

Rachel obtained her Law Degree from Exeter University. She was called to the English Bar in 2003. She has been in practice at the Guernsey Bar for a number of years.

Sara Mallett, Partner, said “We are delighted that Rachel has joined AFR. She brings with her a wealth of experience in the family and criminal courts. Her experience will add to the strength of the department and benefit both clients and the firm. It bolsters AFR’s continued expansion as it moves into the next stage of its development”.
